There will be no Homework Packet this week. The students will receive their Homework Packet for the week of February 15th on Thursday because of Winter break.

Thank you to the parents who donated goodies for our 100th day celebration and our Valentine's day party.

In reading, we will be starting theme 6: Animal Adventures. Our first story is The Sleeping Pig. The students will be learning more about Story Structure and Summarizing.

In science, the students have been learning about the Earth, rocks, and soil.

In religion, the students will be learning about the Apostles.

In phonics, we will be finishing up long u.

Please make sure your child is practicing the new vocabulary words for Theme 5. Thank you!

Your child's Valentine's day mailbox and cards should be brought in by Wednesday.
