

Work For The Week Of: January 25 -29

Reading - Realistic Fiction Sing to the Stars pgs. 489 - 506  Writing - Old Yeller (Notebooks with writing prompts, Questions, and Character references).
English- Adjectives: Limiting Adjectives pgs.314 - 321  .
Word Study- VCCV Pattern, with two syllable words.
Social Studies- Federal Government What powers does our Federal Government have?
Religion- Chapter 14, Review Sacraments of Healing. Test is Tuesday, Jan. 26. Lessons on Haiti. Teaching Solidarity. Make blankets for Fr. Marc and Rosa on Thursday. Father's blanket will be made with navy blue and gray fleece and tied with red ribbon. Rosas will be made with a black background with white paws on it. It will be tied with a cream ribbon with bones on it. We will present them during Catholic School's Week along with cards.
Math- Test on chapter 6, multiplication of larger numbers. Start chapter 7, Divide by one digit pgs. 276 - 281. Practice papers and board drills.
Science- Good and poor conductors of heat.

Dear Parent,

Open House is Sunday, Jan. 24.

Thank you for sending in the money to make Fr. Marc's and Rosa's fleece blankets.

We will present the blankets along with cards to Fr. Marc during Catholic School's Week.

Mrs. Guidos has offered to assist the children and me in this project.

Parents, thank you for all you do for the children.

See you on Sunday!

Respectfully,

Mrs. Focht

