

Work For The Week Of: Feb. 1 - 5

| |
|---|
| Reading - Genre- Tall Tale Heat Wave pgs. 360 - 376 Reading Writing Workshop - Start new book Hope's Crossing. The life of a young girl during the Revolutionary War. Genre - Biography Children want to see the movie Old Yeller. They really enjoyed the book! I am so happy they liked it. I will show it this week, sometime. |
| English- Adjectives: More Limiting Adjectives pgs. 320 - 324. Comparing Adjectives, Forms of Good and Bad. Review part 2, pgs. 314 - 324 for Test. Test the following. Will let you know the date. |
| Word Study- Words with - ed and - ing.. Test on Friday, Feb. 5. |
| Social Studies- Federal Government What powers does our Federal Government have? Still need to finish this up. I need one more hour added to the day!! Test on Southeast on information from the book. Chapters 6-7. Test will be Wed. Feb. 3. Children are very familiar with the information. We will be heading to the Midwest next in chapters 8- 9. |
| Religion- Chapter 15. Scripture Story. Pgs. 187 - 197. Use of the Bibles. Test, Friday, Feb. 5. |
| Math- Chapter 7. Division. Pgs. 280 - 285. Lots of practice papers and Board drills! |
| Science- Good and poor conductors of heat. |

Dear Parent,

Open House was such a success! I enjoyed visiting with you. Thank you for visiting the fourth grade classroom.

This is Catholic School's Week. We will celebrate our school in many ways.

If you do not think the children should view the movie, Old Yeller please let me know and we will not see it.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Focht