

Work For The Week Of April 26 - 30

Dear Parent,

This has been a very busy week. What week isn't? We do make sure we get outside on these nice days for fresh air. The boys are having so much fun learning to jump rope! What great sports they are! They actually do it every day before they play football. Some of the girls play football too! They have a great time outside.

Please, I will need two parents to walk with the class to Mass on May 7!

Mrs. Calkins has written a note to you. She has asked me to put it in my letter. So, here it is.

Parents,

Congratulations to Alex Dobberstein, McKenzie Lamour, Lexie Leone, and Emily Myers.

They have been chosen as finalists in the Detroit Public Library Art Contest. Their sketches may be included in Rochelle Riley's new book, "Raising a Parent."

Award ceremony takes place on Friday, April 23, at Laurel Park Place in Livonia.

Thank you,

Mrs. Calkins

Wonderful work Alex, McKenzie, Lexie, and Emily! We are all very proud of you!
Have a great week end!

Mrs. Focht

Literacy: Genre- Realistic Fiction - Mystery Hoot by, Carl Hiaasen

Writing: Hoot

Journal and Characterizations, Writing Prompts etc.

English- Review Part 3 Verbs - Linking and Helping Verbs, Subject Verb Agreement, There is and There are.

Pgs. 352 - 363

Test is on Thursday, April 29.

Word Study- Hoot Vocabulary Words from chapters 11 - 16

Test on Friday, April 30.

Social Studies- Unit on Economics- Lesson 3 Circular Flow Chart

Lesson 4 Economic Decision Making - Role of Price & Competition

Religion- Chapter 23- Love One Another as I have Loved You. Pgs. 289 - 299

Test on Friday, April 30. Please memorize Commandments 7, 8, and 10.

Math - Quiz on Chapter 11 Subtract Fractions- pgs. 522, 524 -525.

Practices papers.

Science- No Science. Teaching lots of Social Studies.