

Work For The Week Of May 24 - 27

Literacy: Genre- Fantasy, Fiction Tuck Everlasting by, Natalie Babbitt We will read chapters 11 - 20. Writing - Prompts, Questions, and Characterizations.
English- Chapter 14 Correct use of Good, Well, No, Not, and Never. Review Comparing Adverbs and using adverbs correctly. Pgs. 376 - 380. Test Thursday, May 27.
Word Study- Tuck Everlasting Vocabulary. No Test. Crossword puzzle.
Social Studies- Bill of Rights - Lesson 1 What is the Bill of Rights? Lesson 2 What are the Responsibilities of Citizens?
Religion- Religions of North America. No Test on this. Mrs. Meyers will come in on Monday afternoon to speak to the children concerning their family's Faith.
Math - Adding and Subtracting Decimals pgs. 598 - 615
Science- Magnetic Fields, Magnetic objects affected by the strength of the magnet and distance away from the magnet.

Dear Parent,

The children enjoyed the Solanus Casey Center. I am so happy they had a good time. The children were very well behaved. Many people complimented the children on their behavior and how well they listened.

I know the children are getting tired. I am really trying to keep them working to teach as much as I can . Only a couple more weeks. We can accomplish a lot in these two weeks!! They are being real troopers and I appreciate that.

We are finished with weekly spelling tests. We will, however, understand all of the vocabulary words for Tuck Everlasting through discussions and crossword puzzles.

The children's State Reports are beautifully done. We have been sharing a few every day. I will have them all graded this week.

Have a great weekend!

Thank you for everything you do.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Focht

