

This week for the fifth grade parent note, your son will be writing you a letter saying what we have been working on in class.

The letter will include:

Events: Auction next Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

Writer's Workshop: We had our Writer's Celebration and today we looked at poems.

Reader's Workshop: We have been working on character connections and reading punctuation. Reading logs are due on Monday.

Science: This week, we looked at what we already know about environments and next week we will look at environments.

Social Studies: We worked on our colonial newspapers by typing them.

Word Study: We did not get to work on our new words this week, but we will next week. There will not be a spelling test next week.

Here is a letter we picked from our class:

March 5, 10

Dear Mom and Dad,

This week we had a superfantastical time.

Events: Auction, March 13th, at 5:30 pm.

W/W (Writers' workshop) We had our Writers celebration and today we looked at poems

R/W (Reading workshop) We have been working on Character Connections and reading punctuation. Reading logs are due on Monday.

Science: This week we looked at what we all ready no about enviornments and next week we will look at enviornments.

Social Studies: We worked on our colonial newspaper by typing them.

Word Study: We didn't get to work on our new words this week, but we will next week. There will be no spelling test next week.

Parent Signature _____

From,
Jack Considine